Lonewolf shows how to make fire in less than a minute using a bow & drill made from materials harvested in the wild- one of many different fire making techniques- he even makes fire with a beer can using the sun.

Lonewolf processes Soaproot into soap by crushing it onto a rock & adding water- among many plants he teaches to be used as soap, & among many uses he shows for just this one plant.

He knows step-by-step how to process hundreds of different species of plants & trees for their historical & traditional edible, medicinal, & utility uses, along with a plethora of wild living skills.
